

Raw Talk Podcast – Public Relations (Sponsorships & Funding Lead)

Raw Talk Podcast is currently seeking applications for our Season 5 Cast

Raw Talk is a graduate student-led podcast focused on bridging the gap between science innovation and science literacy. Since its launch in 2016, our team has ventured across campus and back, to capture the breadth of medical science research at U of T, and the scientists behind it. New members can expect an enriching experience in communication and opportunities to connect with scientists, health professionals, and the broader public.

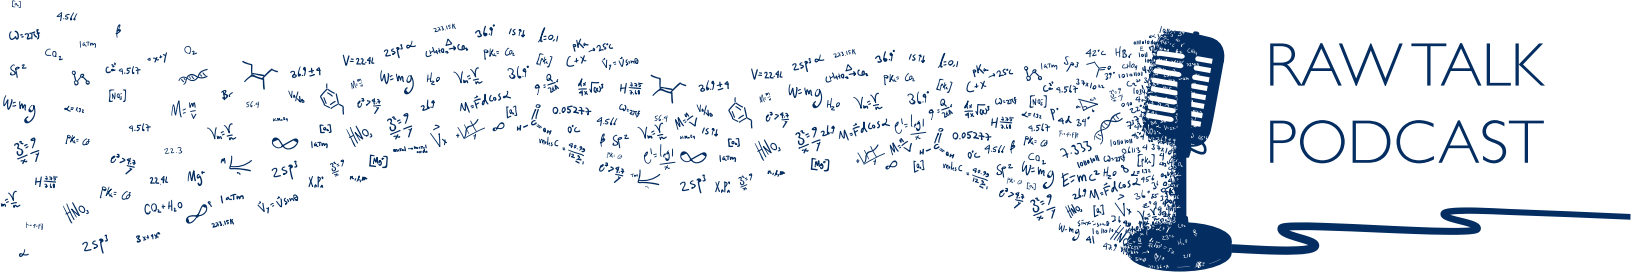

Raw Talk's Public Relations (PR) Team will focus on engaging with stakeholders, pursuing and securing new sponsorship and funding opportunities for the show, and building brand awareness and credibility by spearheading special projects and the annual Raw Talk Live event. The PR team consists of a Stakeholder Management Lead and a Sponsorships and Funding Lead. As the Sponsorships and Funding Lead, you will be responsible for seeking sponsorship and funding opportunities both on and off campus, maintaining relationships with existing sponsors, and coordinating sponsorship agreements. Along with the PR Stakeholder Management Lead, you will co-lead special project committees and the annual Raw Talk Live event.

The two PR Leads will collaborate with each other and the leadership team to build Raw Talk's brand on and off campus. The estimated time commitment for the PR Sponsorships and Funding Lead is 3 hours/week. Moreover, there is an estimated commitment of 25 hours of work dedicated to the organization of Raw Talk Live and other special projects and campaigns, to be split between the two PR leads.

As the Sponsorships & Funding Lead, you will have the following key qualifications:

- Previous experience in seeking and applying for funding opportunities, on and off campus
- Ability to effectively communicate and maintain working relationships with a wide range of sponsors and stakeholders
- Excellent organizational and time-management skills
- Strong ability to work independently and to be resourceful

As a successful candidate, you:

- Are a graduate student with a research/biomedical science background
- Aspire to improve science literacy and make science accessible for a broader audience
- Love to work collaboratively with people of diverse backgrounds and bring ideas from conception to execution
- Are an effective and clear communicator
- Dedicated, responsible, accountable, and self-motivated in achieving goals
- Strive for excellence and are constantly looking for ways to improve

We welcome applicants from all graduate programs, but preference will be given to students who have an interest in science communication and enjoy listening to podcasts relevant to Raw Talk's capabilities: conversation (e.g. longform interviews); and/or narrative (e.g. investigative, informational).

Apply by submitting the following as a single PDF document to our email:
